DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Since all claims previously withdrawn from consideration under 37 CFR 1.142 have been rejoined, the restriction requirement made in the Office action mailed on 11/26/04 is hereby withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-12 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Applicant's arguments dated 8/1/05 are deemed to be persuasive in light of Phillips v. AWH Corp., Fed. Cir. No. 03-1269, 7/12/05 which reverses Texas Digital Systems Inc. v. Telegenix Inc., 308 F.3d 1193 (Fed. Cir. 2002). That is, in prior prosecution the Examiner afforded the broadest reasonable interpretation to the claim language term "ultra- uniform" thereby concluding that the broad term could be anticipated by prior art. However, now it is clear that claim interpretation should start with the specification, that is "[P]roperly viewed the 'ordinary meaning' of a claim term is its meaning to the ordinary artisan after reading the entire patent." Phillips v. AWH Corp., Fed. Cir. No. 03-1269, 7/12/05.

Applicant's specification describes that "ultra-uniform silicide means a layer of silicide where there are no variations in thickness greater than about 3% of the overall thickness" (see Applicant's specification, page 7).

Therefore the Examiner interprets this to be the definition of "ultra uniform silicide". Prior art teaches the combination of all the limitations of claims 1 and 7 along with forming a “uniform silicide”; however fails to teach an “ultra-uniform silicide whereby there are no variations in thickness greater than about 3% of the overall thickness” as claimed by the Applicant. Claims 1 and 7 both contain this allowable subject matter and are therefore deemed to be allowable over prior art. Moreover, claims 2-6 and 8-12 act only to further narrow the allowable subject matter and are therefore also deemed to be allowable over prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”
